By Joyce Marie Taylor

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 359 pages. What safer way could there be to find your soulmate in the 20th Century, but to search anonymously on the Internet Kitty Polowski soon discovers the Internet isn't so anonymous. After a barrage of frightening e-mails, she is certain someone is stalking her, or is she? In the midst of menopause, she finds that, at times, she can't distinguish between reality and paranoia, as the stalker gets closer. People she knows are dying. Is it merely coincidence or has she finally lost her mind? Everyone is suspect, especially John, whoever he may be. About The Author: Joyce Marie Taylor is a versatile writer from Hollywood, Florida. Her books range in genre from adult romance, mystery and suspense, to juvenile fiction and poetry. With the exception of Aniratak, which is set in the Outer Banks of North Carolina, all of her books have South Florida themes, and every one of them are perfect to take to the beach or your favorite lounge chair. . . or download to your Kindle! This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
