At their final meeting the delegates resolved that it is desirable that a bureau should be established in London, maintained by contributions from the several Universities, for the purpose of disseminating information upon all matters of common interest. Amongst the duties specifically assigned to the Bureau were those of making arrangements for the assembling of a Congress at intervals of five years and the publication of a Yearbook. For the rest, it was to undertake such duties as may be suggested to it by the Universities from time to time. The Director of the Imperial Institute most kindly acceded to the request of the Committee by providing accommodation for the office of the Bureau within the building under his charge. In this office the work of the Bureau has been carried on since the commencement of the current year. A considerable number of inquiries have been addressed to the Secretary by Universities, learned societies, and individuals, and various returns of information have been prepared. In compiling the Yearbook the Committee have had in view the preparation of a conspectus of the Calendars of the several Universities which will present a series of pictures of their various activities. Their object has been to prepare a book of use both to persons responsible for university organization and to students, especially advanced students, who are looking out for opportunities of study and research. These comparative presentations will, it is hoped, enable the authorities of Universities to see at...
