MEDICINE: A TRADE OR A PROFESSION? DIMIDIUM facti, qui c pit, habei. He who hath begun, hath half done. Oh, that beginning! There s the rub which makes calamity . and yet, on the other hand, there are many folk who make numerous beginnings yet never finish their tasks. Well, thank heaven, I ve begun! Shall I ever finish? Certainly I would do the job quite properly if there was someone at my bedside in the early morning to take down my waking thoughts in shorthand. What fine chapters I write then How quickly are ideas, such splendid ideas, spun on the loom of my brain! From lack of a recording angel, what magnificent conceptions are lost to the world then! For a long time I have intended to write something about Doctors and Doctoring, Past, Present, and Future. Health is the most important thing to us all, individually and nationally. Disease is our most deadly and most powerful foe; and if the units do not enjoy good health, the State must be a sick State. Sickness brings poverty. A poor State is a weak State, for wealth is power, especially in this twentieth century. I have been in general practice for a quarter of a century, and during all that time have taken an interest in medical politics. When I qualified, in 1889, there were still a large number of unqualified assistants helping in medical practice; very useful men they were, and very cheap. Like the old dispensers, their circumstances tended to make them stay a very long time with one employer. They consequently had a good knowledge of...
