THE CAPTIVE BOYS OF RENNELAERVILLE--JOHN AND ROBERT BRICE. The parents of these children had migrated from their native country, Scotland, in the year 1774, and settled in an entire new place, twenty-two miles west of the city of Albany. At this place a few families had chosen a residence, which was then called Van Rensselaer s Patent, but now Rensselaerville. Here a few log houses were erected by the new comers--the pioneers of a population which has since magnified in wealth and numbers, beyond the most sanguine expectations of these isolated back-woodsmen. The war of the Revolution had raged with various success, for about four years, whet reports of the depredations of marauding parties, composed of Tories and Indians, in and about the precincts of Old Schoharie, reaching the hitherto unmolested society of Rensseiaer-Patent, which threw the defenceless inhabitants...
