Reviews

It is one of the best books. Indeed, it really is a play, nevertheless an amazing and interesting literature. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Tried Virginia, Kentucky, Georgia, Louisiana, Tennessee and North Carolina consecutively. March, 1893, at New Orleans, the day following a Norther, raised about two mouthfuls of blood, my first hemorrhage. Paid no attention to it. April, 1893, in New York City raised bloody sputum. Kept quiet half a day. October, 1894, while feeling first-rate, experienced a copious hemorrhage. No ill effects, did not give in at all, merely went carefully for a few days. June, 1896, had several hemorrhages. Kept quiet about three days then, after a few days of work, went to Adirondacks for two weeks. Gained over 12 pounds and seemed to get right on feet. Winter of 1896-7 had several cases of sputum thick with blood but no clear blood. October and November, 1897, much blood with sputum every morning, but seemed to be from back of nose and upper throat. Apparently in excellent trim all winter. In April and May, 1898, nursed my father in his last illness, watching about three hours each night, between 1 and 5 A.m., often lifting him during this time. June, 1898, had a hemorrhage but did not stop any because of it. July, 1898, had a hemorrhage. No rest for it, but put myself in the hands of Dr., who cut a number of growths, a dozen or more, from my throat. Went to Adirondacks for two weeks, but made but slight gain, if any, and my bronchial wheezing first showed while there. Several colds through...
