FUN READ 1: FOR YOUNG TEENAGERS WITH SEVERE READING DIFFICULTIES INCLUDING DYSLEXIA (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 222 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A real problem for young teenagers with severe reading difficulties, including dyslexia, is the shortage of stories they want to read. (Obviously books aimed at young children are not appropriate.) Based on their considerable research and wide-ranging trials, Anna and Sydney Higgins have written the graded series of books, FUN READ. FUN READ 1 is the first book in the series. Its Flesch Reading Ease score is 107.9. It is graded as very, very easy to read . Based on 8 standard readability formulas, it is appropriate for absolute beginners (= 1st grade/year). The content is suitable for both male and female students aged 10-15. There are 66 pages and 64 illustrations. All four stories deal with common, problematic social situations experienced by many young people: 1. OLD MAN MOON Ted and Jack reluctantly help an old man enter his house. Ted steals a silver cup. After Jack discovers this, there is a fight in the street. The cup is crushed and Ted takes it home. The next morning, the old man arrives at Jack s house. 2. SHOUTS IN THE NIGHT During the night, a father and his two sons and two daughters are awakened by a drunken brawl next door. The dad gets up and leaves the house to stop the fight between the two teenage boys. The next morning he discovers that one of his pigeons has been shot. This leads to retaliation and more rows. 3. THE RUN-AWAY While her mother is in hospital, young Pat becomes increasingly upset that she is being expected to do all the work in the house and look after her father, elder sister and two younger brothers. She...
