RAVEN THE RELUCTANT SHE-DEVIL

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 206 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. Raven: The Reluctant She-devil is a devilishly-naughty black romantic comedy with a difference. As she-devils go, Raven isn't really that scary; not during the day. But when night falls something changes; something a bit unnerving. For those around her at least. By day she lives the kind of life that wouldn't raise a pensioner's eyebrows. A PA for one of the directors of a major insurance company, she epitomizes normality. Mega-efficient, super-smart and ice-cool, she doesn't have many friends amongst her female work-colleagues; they're all too jealous of her. Drives them to near-insanity, and walks a very thin tightrope between safety and danger. She doesn't have a boyfriend; she can't go that far. She'd eat him for breakfast. So she can't take that risk. She likes her job and the buzz it gives her but a work-colleague suddenly going missing after a night out with her wouldn't look good on the CV. Raven has a second job. She doesn't particularly want it, but it seems she has no choice. Like eating and sleeping, it's just something she and her two best friends have to do. In some ways her night-time job is similar to her day-time one -...
