FLORIDA ANY WAY YOU CAN

Inc. Page Publishing Nov 2015, 2015. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 229x152x14 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Steve Sheridan was a college dropout that drifted between jobs. His medical history - severe asthma, along with growth and muscle deficiencies - plagued him throughout his grade school years. These medical issues were the sort of challenges from which most would not expect too many successes to be achieved. During this time period, Steve was not on the best of terms with his family. He had been living in a warehouse and walking to whatever jobs he could find since he could not keep up the repairs on his vehicle. In the fall of 1988, his father played a tape from a Florida Public Radio show which showcased the Florida Trail. After listening to the tape together, his father asked him if he would be interested in attempting to become the first person to hike the trail end to end. With little hesitation Steven said 'yes.' The story that follows actually looks back on two trips; hiking the Florida Trail and then canoeing the length of the state through Florida's rivers, lakes, and canals. You will follow Steve along his journey which would end up traversing more than just the physical challenges that he faced hiking and canoeing. Steve's journey would also cultivate his mental and spiritual tenacity that would become the testament to the man he is today. He conveys the story of running out of water to drink, being chased by an angry bull, agitated alligators banging into his canoe, and more. After completing the two trips, Steven Sheridan was able to find re-direction for his life and finally, success. Steve made headway to obtain a Sociology degree from Florida State University, and...
